JUDGE PARSON'S DECISION

leged employment refused to recognize him as his clerk, but sent to the Board of Supervisors the name of Brickwood Lyman as his choice for the position, which nomination the Board of Supervisors refused to confirm.

On or about the 11th day of August, 1905, the Petitioner presented to Charles Maguire, as Auditor of the County of Hawaii, a written demand for $75.00 alleged to be due the Petitioner as his salary for the month of July as clerk to the Sheriff of Hawaii, W. A. Fetter, Deputy Sheriff of South Hilo, having certified to the faithful performance of Lyman's services; and the demand, before presentation to the Auditor, having been presented to the clerk, approved by the Board of Supervisors, countersigned by John T. Moir, chairman of said Board, and attested by S. K. Pua, Clerk of the County of Hawaii. Upon such presentation the Petitioner demanded that the Auditor issue to him a warrant for $75 upon the Treasurer of the County of Hawaii in accordance with his claim. This demand the Auditor refused. Whereupon Petitioner brought mandamus proceedings to compel the issuance of such a warrant by the Auditor.

Petitioner contends that power of appointment of a Clerk to the Sheriff of Hawaii is conferred upon the Board of Supervisors by Sub-division 2 of Sec. 62 of Act 39 of the Session Laws of 1905, which provides that such Supervisors shall have power "to appoint such subordinate officers as they may deem necessary for the public service," and claims that under this power he was duly appointed to said position.

Respondent denies the right of the Supervisors to make such appointment and claims that it is his right to refuse to recognize their attempted appointment of Petitioner.

Section 100a of the County Act provides: "Any County Officer may, with the approval of the Board of Supervisors, employ such clerks and other assistants in the performance of the duties of his office, and may, without such approval, remove the same."

This section clearly confers upon the Sheriff the right to appoint his own clerk subject only to the approval of the Board of Supervisors, and this right is in no way affected by the right of the Supervisors "to appoint such subordinate officers as they may deem necessary for the public service." The latter clause confers upon the Supervisors power to make appointment only in those instances where the right of appointment, or election, is not specifically conferred upon others. Section 119 provides for the election of deputy sheriffs. Section 110 provides for the appointment (subject to the approval of the Board of Supervisors) of a deputy to each of the following officers, namely: the Clerk, Auditor, Treasurer and County Attorney. To sustain Petitioner's contention, in effect, would be to hold that the County Act has conferred upon the Supervisors the right to nullify the provisions of Section 110 and Section 119a.

Whether or not it is within the power of the Supervisors to appropriate money to pay for special services rendered by any county officer without the consent or approval of such officer need not here be considered. In this instance they do not pretend that the appropriation was made for such purpose. An inspection of the voucher shows that the claim was for salary as Clerk to the Sheriff.

I find that the Auditor was justified

FAIRYLAND AT ST. CLEMENT'S FAIR

THE RECTORY GROUNDS WHERE IT IS BEING HELD PRESENT A RAVISHING PICTURE.

The fair in aid of St. Clement's church was inaugurated yesterday afternoon and the rectory gardens were crowded both then and in the evening by parishioners and their friends. The opening took place at 2:30. The grounds have been completely changed so that they represent a village of booths.

The Royal Hawaiian band was present all yesterday afternoon taking part in a particularly pretty ceremony of raising the flags of different nationalities, the national anthems being played in turn as each emblem went up. The band will be present again this evening.

The tea booth is presided over by a number of young ladies and matrons dressed in kimonos and looking for all the world like they just stepped out of some gorgeous Japanese print.

The "Fish-pond" which is in charge of Mrs. Niblack, offers deep sea fishing. For a very moderate fee one steps aboard the "Kaimolua," a perfect model of a sloop, and casting his line to port is sure to be rewarded with success.

The Candy booth is in charge of Mrs. O. A. Steven. She will be assisted today by Mrs. Murphy and candy made by Mrs. Murphy herself will be on sale. Captain Niblack has made himself the friend of all the youngsters by establishing a shooting gallery which did a rushing business all day yesterday.

On the farther side of the Makiki stream which flows through the grounds is the tea garden and the doll booth. The latter is in charge of Mrs. Frank L. Hoogs. It is very attractive and decorated, and the quality of the dolls is said to be the finest that were ever offered for sale here.

Mrs. John Guild has charge of the lemonade stand, which is surprisingly unique in its design. She is assisted by a number of little misses dressed in yellow as lemons.

Mrs. L. C. Ables has charge of a booth at which are sold a bewildering variety of attractive things. Mrs. K. P. Jeffreys has charge of another one near by. Mrs. H. McK. Harrison is in charge of the Yankee Notion Store, which is just what its name indicates.

The Rectory grounds are a very fairy land of booths, each one attractively gotten up. These will be auctioned off this evening as the last event in the fair.

Last evening in the Parish House parlor vaudeville was presented. There were illustrated songs, the descriptive text being acted out by well-known ladies assisted by some gentlemen of vocal prominence. The "Japanese Love Song" was acted out by Ronald McGrew and Sybil Robertson. The "Last Rose of Summer," sung by Robert White, was cleverly acted out by Mrs. Hawes. A mandolin and guitar duet was given by Mrs. R. de B. Layard and Mr. Kaai in a pleasing manner. The second part brought to the fore Dr. Olowalu Co. and Mrs. Humphris, who presented their dramatic sketch "Love in a Railroad Carriage." This proved a delightful bit of comedy very cleverly acted.

There will be another vaudeville performance this evening in the parish house and there will be dancing.

GREAT BLANK BY IRVING'S DEATH

FAMOUS ENGLISH ACTOR WHO STOOD SO LONG AT HEAD LEAVES A PLACE HARD TO FILL.

"The news of the death of Sir Henry Irving came to me as would that of an old warm personal friend," said Alexander Scott, the English artist, who is at present in the city. "I think that most Englishmen, the world over will have the same feeling for we have been apt to regard Sir Henry as something in the light of a national institution, apart altogether from his personality."

"Certainly his was a unique position on the English speaking stage. He had many mannerisms, it is true, but he was great in spite of them, not because of them. He was perfect master of detail and speaking as an artist, I can only say that his stage pictures were always perfect. He never spared expense in order to get the scene he was portraying as accurate as possible."

"To give an idea of that—the last time I was in Nuremberg I called at a curiosity shop to pick up a few things and the dealer spotting me as an Englishman, told me that he had just completed a deal with Sir Henry Irving. An ancient church in Nuremberg had been demolished and Sir Henry had purchased all of the interior woodwork for use on his London stage. This alone cost him the equivalent of $1750. Other actors would probably have contented themselves with painted canvas."

"I should be very much surprised if his estate amounts to much, although he has taken in more money, probably, than any other man of his profession in his time. He was lavish to a degree in his stagings and costuming and he paid very large salaries to the people he wanted with him."

"It will be a long time before his equal is found."

MYSTERIOUS SEIZURE

macerated. It is then taken out and made up into these packs.

"We cast this old money into various shapes, hats, eagles, slippers, etc. suitable for parlor ornaments or paper weights, also busts of prominent men, Washington, Lincoln, Cleveland, McKinley etc. Price small size (containing about $25,000) 35c. Large size (containing about $50,000) 60c."

There is no signature, and no clue to who the makers of the stuff are. A close examination of the packages, which look like asbestos pasteboard, shows that scraps of greenbacks are scattered all through them. Figures which were once part of greenbacks, or which are an excellent imitation of them, are scattered here and there, as well as other parts of American paper money. They are in tiny scraps, however. Not one is bigger than an eighth of an inch square. There does not seem to be any system to the manner of distributing them.

When split the "cardboard" shows the same sort of material, to run through it. The bits of greenback are upside down, sideways, inside the cardboard and outside it, everywhere mixed up with the asbestos-like material which forms the bulk of the little cards. In fact the little bits of card look just like what they purport to be—macerated greenbacks—mixed with something else in a sort of paste.

The curious little package is being held for examination and investigation. Experiments will be made to find what it is composed of. One suggestion is that it is made of greenbacks which can be restored, but the cut-up condition of the bits of greenback seems to preclude this idea.

Another possibility is that the cardboard was used to ascertain what is the right material of which to make green backs. It is known that there has been some extensive counterfeiting of paper money in the east, and the finding of this package is at least something of an indication that some of the right men have been apprehended. The closing of the series of names of men whose busts might be made with the name of McKinley indicates that the package was made several years ago—before the name of Roosevelt was so big as it is now.

PAHIA CAUGHT JAPS

United States Marshal Hendry started over the Paia this noon to secure two Japanese who had been arrested by Deputy Sheriff Frank Pahia on charges of illicit distilling of okolehao. The men were held by Pahia at the Kaneohe court house, together with some of the liquor he had seized in his raid. The Japs are Isasi and Susiyama. They will be turned over by the deputy sheriff to the federal authorities for prosecution.

DEFENDANT COULD NOT APPEAR

Former police captain W. Holl Thornton was charged in the police court today with profanity and assault and battery. Holl, strange to relate, was too ill to appear. He got into an altercation with some Chinese in the fish market the other day and was badly used up by the crowd. Not satisfied however with doing him up and cutting him, the Chinks caused his arrest. The case was continued until October 19th as Holl is in the hospital recovering from the effects of the wounds he received from the Chinks.
